

FRENCH - Required Reading List

One of the major objectives of Ridgeway High School is to improve the reading comprehension of students attending Ridgeway High School. Therefore, students of standard and Honors French (levels 2-4) will be required to complete a reading assignment.

You will notice that some of the following literary selections have also been chosen as required reading for select standard and Honors and/or AP English classes. Students will be tested on this reading two weeks before the end of the first six grading period.

Students you may choose one of the following for your second six weeks project.

Evangeline - Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The Count of Monte Cristo - Alexandre Dumas

A Tale of Two Cities - Charles Dickens (1982, 1991)*

Les Misérables - Victor Hugo

The Hunchback of Notre Dame - Victor Hugo

Madame Bovary - Gustave Flaubert (1980, 1985, 1995)*

All Quiet on the Western Front - Andre Remarque

The Little Prince - Antoine de Saint-Exupery

*The dates following each selection indicate the year(s) when questions appeared on the English AP Exam.

Required reading CLUE English 9

Students are to complete a Master Work Review Card on their selection. Use the format outlined below.

Use a 5" x 8" white note card. Write your name in the upper right hand corner of the card. Write on the front and the back. Write each heading before responding with the information.

Title:

Author:

Publication Date:

Genre:

Plot Summary: (Note--a brief outline)

Characters:

Setting:

Symbolism:

Author's Style:

Quotations: (You should include several important quotations that are meaningful to the items discussed in the above sections. Let the quotations illustrate aspects of the book.)